90 year Testimony

This upcoming weekend, I'll be in Michigan as our family celebrates my father's 90th birthday. We'll attend church together, enjoy some good food, and recall many good memories.

Yes, there will be a cake.... But I'm not sure about the candles... that many may actually melt the frosting!

It's interesting to see what else 'melts away' throughout the years. In nine decades many joys, triumphs, sorrows and pain have filled the days. Yet, it's a pleasure to listen to those experiences through the eyes of a father's faith. The stories about life's hardships, challenges, and accomplishments have evolved into a great testimony reflecting a grateful heart and an unwavering trust in the benevolent hand of our heavenly father.

The birthday party may be for my father; but I must admit, having a father who trusts in Christ and continues to strive to fulfill his vocation as an earthly father and grandfather seems to be a birthday gift for me!

So, rejoice with me this week... in the gift of faithful Christian fathers!!! ~Dr. Frusti
